About This Game

Battles for space and galaxies are cruel. Your planet is dying. In order to survive, the inhabitants of your planet need women. You have built a special spaceship, on which you must plow the expanse of the universe in search of women. Kill the enemies that do not let you take over the space girl. Only by stripping the cosmic girl, you will be able to seize her and send her to your planet, to continue the race.

Control the ship on the arrows to shoot press Shift or Spacebar. Destroy enemies, collect stars, destroy clothes on girls.

You need to go through all the levels of galaxies, undress all cosmic girls and defeat all enemies.

Excellent drawing graphics, seductive space girls, zadornaya music and many enemies.

My recommendation is extremely weak in this case, basically a 51%.

Have you played Deep Space Waifu? Did you like it, but think "If only the ladies were anatomically sanitized, and the gameplay was much simpler"? No? Too bad. This game is basically DSW with shallower gameplay, far less style or artistry, and dolls. Disappointingly, there's no mouse only mode, which would work better in this than DSW given the much less involved gameplay on display here. On the plus side, you pan around the image based on your movement rather than just waiting for the game to let you go where you want. This makes it much easier to target the clothing bits you need when you feel like it. On the downside is pretty much everything else. The ladies are a bit generic animu, there's no censoring because they have nothing to censor, and there's no automatic screenshot upon success. Also the ladies are broken up into two stages each rather than having progressive battles where you do outer layer then inner layer. This makes it look like there are more ladies than there actually are.

If you enjoy the clothes destroying type games, this is one of those, so yeah I guess.. No. Just no. Go play Deep Space Waifu. No, just no.

I may be an unredeemable weeb, but this is where I draw a line.

You are a space ship that shoots clothing off anime girls. If this is your cup of tea... just get some hentai doujinshi.. It's just a deep space waifu rip-off. Please don't support this dev.. One Word: Nudity
It's a good game to kill time, however if you dig deep enough you can download "extra" content to "enlighten" your experience playing.

But overall a good game, it's great for the price. But it is a short game. Again, it's cheap, so enjoy. ;). Space Girls might look interesting but it's really not. The gameplay is really boring and easy. Unlike Tower of Lust, this game doesn't have bugs. That doesn't mean it's good, however. It's actually the most boring shoot em up game I've ever tried. The idea is a rip-off of other similar games but all of those are better than this.

Don't buy it. Your money is better spent elsewhere.

Don't buy it. Your money is better spent elsewhere.. So, Space Girls is a space shooter, basically you have a space ship, your planet is dying and In order to survive you have to undress the girl to take her to your planet. There are a few enemies that will try to kill you.

The game is VERY easy, the controls are basically the W,A,S,D to move and Space or Shift to shoot. Achievements are also easy to get, just complete the game and you will unlock all.

I only found 1 bug, which is, the game has 22 levels, but you can only select until level 20, so if you lose on level 21, or 22, then you have to start again from level 20...

If you are going to buy this to use a uncensored patch (+18), forget it, Dev never replied to any of our comments, here or in any of their other games as far as i can see, they dont seems to fix bugs etc, so i dont think we will ever be able to get a +18 patch, unless someone in the community does it.

After all, i do recommend it, i didnt see any major bugs that make the game unplayable and its cheap and fun.. Very cool! These are the only women i have ever interacted with my whole life!

10/10 would stop being a virgin again.. I um was uh very horny and was looking for sweet release and this game advertised that I could undress these anime BABES and when I did in the game there was no nipple. Im very disapointed. 0/10 IGN. No. Just no.

Go play Deep Space Waifu. Story in this game doesn't exist.

There are 2 songs in the entire game. Yeah.

This game is low quality space shooter. You control a space ship with W,A,S,D or arrow keys and you shoot lasers. with left or right shift button.

You use lasers to destroy other space ships and clothes of girls. I am not kidding. To complete level you need to pick up stars you get from destroying ships and you need to destroy all clothes or underwear on a girl. Game gets more hard as you complete levels, mostly because ships shoot a lot of projectile and because projectiles gets really fast. There are seemingly 20 levels in the game but i completed level 20 and there was 21 level so i don't know how many are there since you can't choose it from main menu and the game at that point becomes very tedious and boring.

Art: is not that good especially background which is basically low quality pictures of a space, model of girls are average at best.

Definetly not worth it. There are far better games than this.

Thanks for reading.. Obvious ripoff is obvious. \u00af_(\u30c4)\u00af tl;dr: The game tries to copy that obvious game but fails miserably at every single aspect.

The main concept of the game, the scroll shooting (or bullet hell which it isn't) is ridiculously bad. This game just doesn't play well!

While your bullets seem to disappear whenever they reach the end of the screen, enemies and enemy bullets still survive and will appear at the most inappropriate time.

The camera is terrible. Whenever you are going down you are locked to the bottom and will most certainly crash into flying enemies losing health.

Health is a joke. Sometimes it's just boring to avoid bullets so you can easily stay in one spot and take damage, nothing changes.

Star system is pointless. Literally.

The game is made in a passion of the whole game being 1 long level, yet you reset everything before every new level. Pointless!

Art style changes from one char to another.

The game is too easy.

No difficulty settings.

Spoiler alert: There are 22 levels, but you can only select 20.. no just no, get any other game
